Upper-Level Skills Requirement Courses 2009-2010

The following courses are currently expected to satisfy the upper-level skills requirement (Level One and Level Two Skills Courses) for academic year 2009-10. Barring unexpected circumstances, the listed courses that are offered for Fall 2009 will be skills courses, at the level designated, for at least that semester. The courses listed that will be offered in Spring 2010 are expected to be skills courses, at the level designated, but are subject to change before spring registration. Additional skills offerings may be added for Fall 2009 and Spring 2010.

An Upper-Level Skills Requirement Status Form, required of all students to record completion of a Level 1 or Level 2 skills course, is available in the Assistant Dean for Student Life office.
